

Conveyor belt scraper (Replacement blade)

Belt cleaning systems are designed for efficient cleaning of belting carrying fine and powdery materials, dry or slightly moist bulk materials and incline conveyors with cleats.

Effectively eliminate material carry back.

Reduce lost material.

Decrease maintenance hours and expenses.

Fewer blade changes means less downtime.

Use the generic mounting plate to ensure easy installation to the drum of the main Excellent material path cleaning ability can minimize between the centre and the end of the scraper uneven wear.
Blade shapes and media to suit your application .