

Job Title: Spanish-Speaking International Trade Intern (Shenzhen, China)

Location: Shenzhen, China

Positions Available: 2

About the Position

We are seeking a motivated Spanish-speaking International Trade Intern to support our overseas business development and marketing activities, particularly in the Latin American and Spanish markets. This role offers valuable hands-on experience in international trade, market development, and global business operations. Outstanding interns who successfully pass the company's evaluation may be promoted to a Foreign Trade Sales Representative position and potentially assigned to work in the Latin American market.

Key Responsibilities

1. Assist the foreign trade team with daily business operations and order follow-up.
 2. Support the preparation and coordination of international trade exhibitions.
 3. Input and maintain Spanish-language content on the company website and assist with related marketing materials.
 4. Conduct market research and collect potential client information from Spain and Latin America.
 5. Help organize product materials and assist with communication with overseas customers when required.
 6. Assist with documentation, data organization, and other international trade-related tasks assigned by supervisors.
-

Qualifications

1. Native Spanish speaker with good English communication skills.
2. Study experience in Spain is required; graduates in International Trade, Business, Marketing, or related fields are preferred.
3. Strong interest in international trade and overseas market development.
4. Good computer skills and familiarity with Microsoft Office software.
5. Responsible, detail-oriented, and capable of working in a team environment.

6. Outstanding recent graduates are highly encouraged to apply.

Career Development

Interns who demonstrate strong performance and pass the company's assessment may be promoted to a Foreign Trade Sales position, with the opportunity to work in Latin American markets as an overseas sales representative.

Benefits

- Company-provided accommodation (apartment, two persons per room, fully furnished and ready to move in; water and electricity costs shared monthly).
 - Work visa and residence permit arranged and sponsored by the company.
 - Competitive compensation package (salary to be discussed during the interview).
 - Opportunity to gain hands-on experience in international trade and global markets.
-

Work Location: Shenzhen, China

If you are passionate about international business and eager to develop a career in global trade, we welcome you to join our team.